MEET CAPTAIN LIVING SOUND THIS WEEKEND

INSIDE (AND OUTSIDE)

THE MARITIME AQUARIUM AT NORWALK

NORWALK, CT – Captain Living Sound, the masked crusader for Long Island Sound, will encourage visitors to be “Sound Stewards” during special appearances Aug. 6 & 7 at his base of operations, The Maritime Aquarium at Norwalk. The super environmentalist will be on hand between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. inside the Aquarium (admission required), but also out on neighboring streets during the SoNo Arts Celebration. He’ll sign autographs, pose for photos and ask his fans to pledge to be “Sound Stewards,” by making simple changes to their lifestyles that can benefit the health of Long Island Sound. For more details, go to www.maritimeaquarium.org or call (203) 852-0700.
